

Democratic Committee of Lower Merion and Narberth

The Democratic Committee of Lower Merion and Narberth is creating a list of voters who are interested in receiving email information from the Committee and its candidates. If you would like to be added to our electronic mailing list, please sign up below.

| Name | Street | Zip Code | Email Address | Phone Number | Precinct |
|-------------|---------------|-----------------|----------------------|---------------------|-----------------|
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |
|             |               |                 |                      |                     |                 |

Committeepeople and candidates: Please return completed forms to Sam Adenbaum, 127 Penarth Road, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004 or fax to 610-617-3130